

Light up the night - Together against violence

To commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Polytechnique Massacre, the Prescott-Russell Community is rallying together to say NO to violence by lighting up each community in PINK from midnight to midnight on December 6th, 2014

December 6th: Be part of the solution Which community will be the "pinkest"

- * If you would like to take action and participate, please contact your municipal office for a pink light bulb.
- * If the pink light bulb is not possible, put a pink balloon on your front door.

For more information and to send your pictures, please contact Anne at Centre Novas: annej@centrenovas.ca
