

Topsoil to Sacha's Park, courtesy of Laviolette Excavation

Charles Laviolette, owner of Laviolette Excavation in L'Orignal, has become another donator to Sacha's Park. In the last few weeks, he has donated topsoil which has already been applied to the project, one of very few accessible playgrounds in Canada. Asked why he agreed to help, Mr. Laviolette answered: "It was the right thing to do. This is a nice area (to live in) and we try to help when we can."
