PRESENTATION – COMMITTEES / CONSULTANTS

Denis Séguin - Vankleek Hill Town Square

Mr. Denis Séguin, architect, gave a presentation to Council on the design and plan of the park adjacent to the Post Office, that was recently purchased by the Township as a site for the Cenotaph that is currently in front of Vankleek Hill Collegiate Institute on Highway 34.

His park design was divided in three sections, the first and closest to Main Street features a festive tree, the middle section a proposed Maple tree to celebrate Canada 150, and the rear section will feature the cenotaph.

It is proposed that the park be developed in phases, the first phase to include the relocation of the Cenotaph.

The Mayor thanked Mr. Séguin for his presentation and for his services that he is providing to the Township free of charge.
